- Ad forms are due on Nov 22 to Randee P.
- If your student is ordering a show shirt from a different department, or something tie sensitive please send an email to Jacob Hill in addition to putting it in the drop box.

- Be sure you are turning in your receipts as soon as possible so you can be reimbursed more quickly

Director Reports:

Mr. Taylor- Director of Paws-Thank you for coming out in this cold. Thank you to all the volunteers for Pinocchio. The cheer station was a wonderful experience. Drama Daze was a huge success. Thank you Meredith Fiaccone! A very smooth and great day. We doubled our attendance from the last two years. Snap Raise is going well, please make one more push. Thank you to Randee P for getting our website looking so great. PAWS are doing duet and group scenes and studying a musical. OAP should be decided and cast before Christmas break. We are very excited about the freshmen class. They are a close and dynamic group. The future is bright!

Mr. Valentine- Director of Stage Prents' & Improv-Thank you so much for Pinocchio. It was great to see the younger audience. The canned food drive was a huge success, raising almost 600 cans. The Three Day Race, we learned a lot about the participants, camping out, had pictures taken our posters, we danced and cheered and we were told "this is what the stations are supposed to be like." The class made digital portfolios and used information, a resume, community service, a gallery of their work, samples of their talents and more. It is to teach them how to make a professional portfolio.

The technician designs will be set up in the cafeteria at the Thanksgiving Dinner that will be going to ITS State Festival. Group numbers and individual numbers will all be performed at 7:00. State convention usually has 8000 kids. The kids go to classes, workshops and perform. All ITS kids have receive a festival schedule. Parents will drop off their kids at 7:30 am in the lobby of the Gaylord (the hotel lobby, not the convention). Pick up is Sunday at 1:00. We went over the rules and expectations with the kids. Their job is to get experience and learn. Room keys are turned in in the morning and they are not allowed into their rooms during the day. Curfew is strictly enforced by Grapevine police, it is 11:30 pm, and will ticket them. Kids need to pack snacks and food, but not appliances. There will be a group outing to Ice and lots of pictures. They will not be going to Nationals regardless of advancement.

Mrs. Wilson- Director of Studio Prents-Class Action show is this week. Sorry that rehearsals have run a little long. Come see the show. They are doing a great job. Things needed: Ivy League sweatshirt/t-shirt-Yale, MIT, Stanford size S or M for this week--by tomorrow, Costco needs-laundry detergent-Kristi Page will go, need someone that would be willing to take bags to donate to CCA-Kimberley Standiford mom will go, if you are a mom that likes to black Friday shop-still need small size suits size 28 inch waist, jacket size 32 or 34 if anyone is willing to purchase some we really need them, we need about 17 for musical-please come see Mrs. Wilson, she still needs volunteers to sew for musical

Mr. Patterson- Director of Tech Paws and Tech Prents' - The kids have been working on UIL designs, and the shows and musical. They are working hard and doing great. Still looking for typewriters and push button phones

Other business- Last bit of spirit wear is here and available--Courtney Archer.
